Mrs. Bercarole was an up to date woman. She understood the monopoly question, the high price for provisions question and the labor question.

The servant question Mrs. Barcarole considered part of the other questions. The condition of the servant market, she argued, grew out of the education of those classes who formerly went into service. Being educated, they considered themselves and were to be considered as good as those who would be their masters. To serve they regarded demeaning. To work to an office, a store or a factory was not demeaning. Erro there were so servants to be had.

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of guasts. Few people ore siraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the form could be magnified. to a size equal to its terrore it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink. The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish li-sell and develop. When there is a dynulency of vital force, languar, restlesaness, a sallow cheek, n hollow eye, when the apporte is poor and the aleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortily the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
